School

The School of Arts and College of Design Pablo Picasso in A Coruña is a centre of public education dependent on the Department of Culture, Education and Management College of the Xunta of Galicia (Consellería de Educación e Ordenación Universitaria da Xunta de Galicia).

The EASD Pablo Picasso is part of the Confederation of Schools of Art, organization composed of 95 per cent of the public centres of the State providing instruction of Fine Arts and Design.

The current management team of the centre is formed by the director Manuel Andrés Soto Gómez, the assistant director Mario García Herradón, the Secretary José Juan Díaz Vieites and the head of studies Elena Pardo Antequera.

History

The arts education in A Coruña began with the establishment of the classes of Lineart in the ‘School of Navigation’ of the Royal Consulate. It would then expand with the Drawing Figure, Drawing of adornment, Modelling and Emptying, Arithmetic and Geometry. In 1850 was formed the so-called “School of Fine Arts’ in the House of the Consulate which would move later to the number 23 of “Calle Ancha de San Andrés”. This centre will be transformed into the ‘College of Arts and Industry’.

It would then occupy the building Eusebio Da Guarda, in the current Pontevedra square, already as “Escuela de Artes Aplicadas y Oficios Artísticos” (School of Applied Arts and Artistic Skills). It stayed there until 1988, when it was eventually moved to a new functional building, in the number two of the street Os Pelamios where it continues nowadays.

Today, School of Art and Superior Design Pablo Picasso in A Coruña is a centre of public education dependent on the Department of Education and Management College of the Xunta of Galicia. It imparts Vocational training degrees in Photography and Illustration and bachelor Degree in Graphic Design and Interior Design.

Location

The School is close to the Maritime Promenade of A Coruña, in the inlet of Os Pelamios. It is connected by bus with the line 3. Check the timetable and bus changes at the website of the Bus Company of A Coruña.

Accommodation

The EASD Pablo Picasso does not organize directly foreign students' accommodation in A Coruña. It facilitates information to the students in order for them to reserve their accommodation on their own. We recommend the option of renting shared apartments in the city. The students should reserve a hotel or hostel for the first days in the city, so that they can visit "in situ" apartments for rent, before signing any contract.

All the students can find up to date lists of apartments to share with other students in the web page of the SAPE (Servicio de Asesoramento e Promoción do Estudante).

The web page foros.erasmuscoruna.com, works only as a forum. There, you can find different advertisements of apartments and rooms for rent, and you can also announce yourself as a student that is looking for accommodation. For additional information on accommodation, students can also check the following web pages:

Health Insurance

All foreign students should come with an insurance coverage valid for Spain. Those students affiliated to Social Security, should apply for the Health Insurance Card in the Social Security Centres of their country of origin. This card will allow them to use all of the Social Security services and hospitals in Spain when needed, free of charge. In case of serious illness, students can go to the Social Security hospital in A Coruña (Complejo Hospitalario Universitario da Coruña).

For other less serious matters students can go to the Health Centre nearest them or to the “Casa do Mar” in A Coruña. Students not affiliated to Social Security have to bring private insurance coverage. In this case they will have to know which private hospital they can go to, and arrange the payment conditions with their insurance company. For list of private hospitals, please refer to Section – Hospitals in A Coruña (page 46).

Any other insurance, such as coverage against theft or luggage lost, can be helpful.
